23rd December, 2019

Dear Ms. Shepherd,

I refer to the request which you have made under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI) 2014 for access to records held by this Department, as follows:

- The number of Irish passport applications from UK addresses (England, Scotland and Wales) from 2012, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019 (or the latest figure).
- If possible, could we get the statistics broken into the categories of England, Scotland and Wales?

I also refer to the acknowledgement of your request which was sent to you on 4th December, 2019.

I am the Deciding Officer in this case. By way of explanation, in order to meet the requirements of the Passports Act 2008, each applicant must demonstrate their Irish citizenship in their application. Entitlement to Irish citizenship is governed by Irish law and in particular the Irish Nationality and Citizenship Act 1956, as amended. Irish citizens are not prohibited from holding foreign citizenship in addition to their Irish citizenship. The Passport Office does not compile data on any other citizenships that an applicant may hold.

Tracking of passport applications is in general carried out against channel of application rather than by other metrics, including country of origin. Bearing this in mind, and in regard to part A of your request the general breakdown of applications will give the available detail on the total number of passport applications received from Britain for the years 2012 – 2019 as follows:

Year	Britain
2012	45,646
2013	42,441

2014	43,449
2015	46,229
2016	63,453
2017	80,752
2018	98,544
2019 (to 4 th December)	101,947

We are unable to break down these figures into the number of applications made by people residing in England, Scotland and Wales. Therefore, part B of your request falls for refusal under Section 15 (1) (a) of the Freedom of Information (FOI) Act 2014 which states that an FOI request may be refused if:

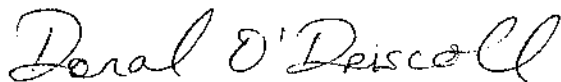

'the record concerned does not exist or cannot be found after all reasonable steps to ascertain its whereabouts have been taken'

Right of Appeal

Should you wish to appeal this decision, you may do so in writing to the Freedom of Information Unit, Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade, 76-78 Harcourt Street, Dublin 2, D02 DX45 or by email to foi@dfa.ie. A fee applies for an appeal for access to non-personal information; the level of this fee has been set at €30. For methods of payment, please contact FOI Unit at foi@dfa.ie, or 01-4082857.

You should make your appeal within 4 weeks (20 working days) from the date of this notification. However, the making of a late appeal may be permitted in appropriate circumstances. The appeal will involve a complete reconsideration of the matter by a more senior member of the staff of this Department.

Yours sincerely,

Donal O'Driscoll
Passport Office.
