

Press Release

Elves and Daemons
Tales and Sounds from Ireland

Musical storytelling performance

Kasteliotissa Hall, Nicosia

25 and 27 January 2018, 20.00 pm, free entrance and subtitles in English

Marina Katsari, David Faure Brac, Christine Giraud, Vaggelis Gettos and Evagoras Bekiaris meet in Nicosia and invite their friends to a unique Irish musical storytelling experience in the most atmospheric venue of Nicosia, with free entrance and subtitles available in English, for only 2 performances, on 25 and 27 January 2018, in the Medieval Kasteliotissa Hall.

Marina Katsari, storyteller, known in Cyprus for her multiple commitment to the art of storytelling and also her particular synergies with musicians from various music fields, cooperates with David Faure Brac (Irish flutes, banjo, guitar) multi-instrumentalist from France, dedicated to Irish music, the Franco-Danish singer Christine Giraud, the Greek musician Vaggelis Gettos (accordeon, guitar, percussion, scenario) and the Cypriot music engineer Evagoras Bekiaris to set up a dialogue between Celtic tales and traditional Irish tunes. Subtitles available in English.

The performance is supported by the Embassy of Ireland in Cyprus and the access to the venue was provided by the Cultural Services of the Ministry of Education and Culture of the Republic of Cyprus.

Kasteliotissa Hall, Agiou Marona st (opposite Pafos Gate), Nicosia

25 and 27 January 2018, 20.00, Free Entrance, Subtitles in English

Booking needed: 97843347, www.marinakatsari.com, gettos86@gmail.com